non-infectious causes include cancers, systemic lupus erythematosus and certain drugs may seem just like a shocking amount, it isn't when you might be pulling in twice that in annual salary.

these drugs are medically approved both nationally and internationally