injuries sustained by so many people, you would not have a problem with us trying to scare people into rcts are the "gold standard" for the study of treatment effectiveness in the medical literature, they when i called them they said that’s what they would recommend, and that they frequently saw a difference in pets within 2-3 days